A GREAT SPEECH

From a True Democrat Who Favors Parker

And Opposes Rooseveltism, Militarism and Republicanism

In his recent address at Springfield, Mo., Hon. W. J. Bryan made these telling points:

"Judge Parker believes in the gold standard, I believe in bimetalism, but I can vote for him in order that through him the country may rid itself of an imperial policy. What if he does believe in the gold standard? I never disliked an advocate of the gold standard so much that I would refuse any aid that he was willing to give toward bringing to the country any good things, and Judge Parker's election would bring us relief from imperialism. If any silver Democrat is still in doubt as to his duty, let me say to him that Judge Parker voted for me when the restoration of bimetalism was the paramount issue; if he could vote for me when the money question was paramount, I can vote for him when we are confronted with another and greater issue than the money question."

THE RACE QUESTION.
"The surrender of the present President to corporate influences furnishes an excellent proof of the wisdom of Judge Parker in making the statement that he has at the very beginning of the campaign. Leaving economic questions out of consideration, there are certain issues which have been forced into the political arena by eight years of Republican rule, and these issues must be removed before there can be calm and deliberate consideration of social and industrial conditions. Take, for instance, the race issue.

"President Roosevelt has done more to embitter the white and black races against each other than any other President since the war. No one who realizes what a race issue means can view with indifference the growing antagonism between the Caucasian and the African. The race issue has already cost this country hundreds of thousands of precious lives and hundreds of millions of dollars, and whenever it again appears as a national issue, all other questions will be lost sight of. President Roosevelt has not only done nothing toward settling the race question or toward improving the condition of the black race, but he has injured the blacks while he has spread alarm and anxiety among the whites. We need the Southern Democrats in our fight to resist the advances of plutocracy and we cannot interest them in any other national question while they think their civilization is in peril. If Judge Parker's election would do nothing else than remove the race question from national politics, we would be justified in supporting him."

MILITARISM.

"But President Roosevelt stands for militarism. Eight years ago we had about 25,000 men in our standing army, today we have a minimum of 60,000, with an authorized maximum of 100,000, and the President can at any time raise the army to the maximum without further congressional action. The navy has been very much enlarged and the Republican leaders are demanding a still larger navy. We today spend thirty times as much for the army and navy as we spent upon the Department of Agriculture. What a discrimination against the farmers, who are the foundation of our national prosperity! What a menace to the laboring men, who come next in numbers to the farmers!

"MEN BE ANXIOUS TO KILL."
"When it is remembered that fighting means killing, the President's declaration was equal to saying that a good soldier must not only be willing to kill but must be anxious to kill. I denounce the sentiment as bloody, brutal and barbarous, and I appeal to you who have seen military service to verify the charge. I see before me men who fought on the Union side and men who fought on the Confederate side in the Civil War; possibly there may be men here who took part in the Mexican War and I know that there are those here who took part in the Spanish War and others who are members of military companies.

"What one of you ever regarded it as the duty of a good soldier to be anxious to kill? Men have taken human life in the heat of passion; governments have taken human life in the enforcement of the law, and soldiers have taken human life in defense of their country and in the enforcement of principles that they believed to be more important than life, but what soldier would admit that he regarded it his duty to desire to take human life? The election of Judge Parker will place in the White House a man whose thoughts tend toward peace rather than war; a man who believes that our nation should be admired for its moral grandeur rather than excite fear by the number of its soldiers or of the size of its guns, and this is reason enough why I should support him. "But Judge Parker is opposed to imperialism, he is in favor of giving independence to the Philippines, and he is in favor of making that promise now. If that promise had been made in the spring of 1898 it would have saved our country much in lives and money. We cannot regain what we have already lost, but by making the promise now we can convert the Philippines into friends and begin to reduce our war expenses. The Democratic position upon the Philippine question is the same as it was in 1900; it was the American position then, it is the American position now."

TO THE HONEST STAND-UP VOTERS OF MONTGOMERY COUNTY:

In announcing myself for the office of County Clerk of Montgomery County, I was well aware of the fact that I would have to depend on your vote to elect me, for were I inclined I haven't the money to buy the office. A politician told me the other day "no man can be elected in Montgomery unless he spends money." That he knew of men who owned blue grass farms that had to be bought. I believe that gentleman was mistaken. I never bought a man's vote in my life nor ever saw a man sell his vote, so I am ignorant of the business and opposed to this method.

I was at the general delivery in your postoffice for nearly four years—a place where anyone can make lots of friends or enemies. I leave it to you how I treated the public, little and big, black and white. The time is so short before the election and comes at the time of the year when the house that employs me needs every hour of my service. I may not, therefore have the opportunity to see you but please understand I want your vote. I know of men in Mt. Sterling who will vote for me whom I will not mention the subject to, and I do not think it would amount to a thing to button-hole you every time I see you. Every man in the County knows me, and knows whether he wants me to have the office or not.

If nominated and elected I promise my best services. Should you vote for me I will appreciate the favor, but if you will to do otherwise, you will never know the difference, for all men have a right to freedom of thought and expression.

Very Respectfully,

FRED BASSETT.

CANDIDATES FOR CITY COUNCILMEN.

In this issue will be found two sets of candidates for the City Council, subject to the action of the Democratic party. These gentlemen are: Roy G. Kern and M. R. Hainline, of the First Ward; T. H. Eastin and W. A. DeHaven, of Second Ward, and William Botts and John Feehan, of Fourth Ward. This is known as the Administration candidates.

With the exception of Roy G. Kerns and W. A. DeHaven, they have a record as councilmen, and that record is an open book to which every voter regardless of party affiliation can have access.

These gentlemen are each good, loyal Democrats, and the question to concern the people is this: "Are they good moral men, men of standing whose lives would reflect credit to the office and the city." That question satisfactory settled and the next is their records, what have they done for the improvement of the financial and moral condition of the city, and if these questions are satisfactorily answered it seems to us we should know a good thing and hold on to it. But, if their record is not satisfactory the Democrats should see to it that there is a change and that right speedily.

We should consider the citizens' interests, not that of individuals.

The other set of candidates are Garrett Sullivan and Albert Bourne, of the First Ward. Their Democracy cannot be questioned. They are good business men, careful, industrious and exceedingly watchful of their own interest.

We know of no better way to judge how they would care for other interests than to consider how they manage their own.

The Second Ward furnishes as candidates for Councilmen J. W. Wade and T. B. Rodman. They are also good Democrats, men of industry, careful about their own business and we are sure would make good councilmen.

For the Fourth Ward are W. P. Apperson and M. O. Cockrell. Each of these gentlemen are party workers and good business men who are making money.

The first six names represent the present administration, have been tried, except Mr. Kern and Mr. DeHaven, who are lawyers and successful business men.

With these gentlemen before the people it is necessary to ascertain what they stand for, which party stands for retrenchment and reform, what they propose for the city and to cast their vote for the men that represent the principles which when executed would be for the betterment of the city.

Another question to concern the voters is this: "Who will be elected to the offices to be filled by the council, what their capacity is, whether they would discharge the duties of the office acceptably or not."

With these two sets of candidates the people can easily make a choice. As for us we shall know no man. We shall consider his fitness for the place and what he proposes. The matter for selecting a council is up to the people and they must investigate and decide.

"Ticky" James Back Killed.
This man was recently acquitted in our Circuit Court for false swearing in connection with one of the Breathitt county murder cases. In July his wife obtained a divorce in the Breathitt Circuit Court. Since then he has attempted to persuade her to live with him. She refused. It is reported that at his last interview she threatened to kill him if he again attempted to mistreat her as on other occasions. On last Friday morning he went to the home of her mother in Jackson where she was and attempted to force his way into the house through a rear window. The wife fired with a pistol. The ball entered his head and he fell in the yard and died.

Murderer Pardoned and Lieutenant Governor Turned Down.

When W. P. Thorne took the oath of office he gave the people to understand that criminals need not apply to him for pardon. Last week he pardoned Clem Butcher, of Louisville, who has been sentenced to the penitentiary for the foul murder of his daughter. This same Thorne had an appointment to speak in the Democratic campaign in Madisonville, Ky., on Monday, but the Democrats of that city and county were so incensed at his action in pardoning this murderer that they demanded of the Democratic State Campaign Committee that the engagement be cancelled, and it was cancelled. The Lieutenant Governor has, according to our opinion, received a merited rebuke. The daily papers have announced that Gov. Beckham will not again leave the state while Mr. Thorne is Lieutenant Governor. He has been stuck once before this way. Perhaps the Lieutenant will not be so funny hereafter.

NEW STANDARD DINING CAR

For World's Fair Traffic via Southern Railway.

On account of the popularity and greatly increased patronage of the SOUTHERN ST. LOUIS SPECIAL, (train No. 24) which leaves Lexington daily at 6:10 a. m. and Louisville at 9:00 a. m. for St. Louis the SOUTHERN RAILWAY has found it necessary to put into service magnificent new standard dining cars, which will provide service superior to any railroad in this section of the country.

The arrival time of this splendid train at St. Louis is 4:56 p. m. daily, this being the fastest train via any line from Lexington, Louisville and intermediate points to St. Louis.

This is very important news to all of the people of Indiana and Kentucky who live in the portion of those states penetrated by the SOUTHERN RAILWAY. All meals enroute through those states are served a-la-carte on these trains. The spacious and comfortable dining cars will attract still greater patronage for this road.

These trains stop only at the principal points between Lexington and Louisville and St. Louis, and have been conspicuously popular with all first class travelers to the World's Fair. The most satisfactory way to appreciate the advantages of these trains is to compare with the appointments of cars on any other railroad operating into St. Louis.

The Exposition is now complete in every detail, presenting a picture too beautiful to describe. The general opinion of people from far distance who have delayed their visits for this completion, have now begun to come, so that the finishing touch which the SOUTHERN RAILWAY has put upon its already superb train service is very timely and will doubtless be sincerely appreciated by the public generally.

THE SOUTHERN is many miles the shortest road from Lexington and Louisville and intermediate points to St. Louis. 1-11

A TRIBUTE

To Mrs. Georgia Turner.

The members of the Women's Christian Temperance Union of Mt. Sterling offer this tribute to the memory of their dear loved sister Mrs. Georgia Turner, who was called home August 14th, 1904.

"Our golden chain is broken and the link which bound us together in unity has been severed for the dearest of the heavenly mansion were opened wide and the spirit of our sister was called to enter into that eternal home prepared for the followers of the meek and lowly Jesus. Though our eyes are dimmed and our hearts sad yet we bow in submission to the sovereign will of God, whose unerring judgment orders all our ways. Mrs. Turner was one whom we all loved, one who was a blessing to our society and a benediction to all with whom she was associated. Possessed of a loving and sympathetic disposition, she was ever mindful of the comforts of others even to the forgetfulness of self. Her life exemplified the true Christian spirit of which love was the exponent. As a society we will ever cherish her memory and strive to emulate her many virtues. May her beautiful Christian life inspire us to a more holy Christian living and lead us to noble deeds of love and charity. To her kindred and the many sorrowing friends we offer our tender sympathy, and while we mourn with them because she has gone from us we do rejoice that she is not dead but sleeping."

Do You Want a Piano Free.

You have the privilege and opportunity of obtaining a fine upright piano at a cost of only two cents—a postage stamp. This is legitimate and honorable dealing. The Montenegro-Riehm Music Co., of Lexington, are the donors.

We commend their proposition and ask a representative of each family taking our paper to read this advertisement. It appears in every issue of our paper. It gives all particulars. This piano is a handsome Marshall & Wendall, and has been on the market since 1853 and is one of the most reliable offered.

We request every subscriber to cut out and send or take this ad to the firm, be registered on their books, and on Dec. 24 you may be the fortunate one who secures the piano.

ARE YOU?

Are you going to get you a suit this winter? If you are, you just ought to go into M. R. Samuels and see their beautiful line of samples. They guarantee you a fit and you surely will get suited there. They'll charge you reasonably and have your order filled in double quick time. If you need a cloak, rain coat, walking skirt or silk petticoat, they're right there with the goods, all wool, a yard wide and one cent cheaper than any one else. I know you want a shirt-waist suit so you must inspect their line of silk and wooten suitings—you'll be compelled to buy one of these. I don't see how you can resist the temptation to buy a silk one and one of those pretty but cheap silicilans for there are plenty of them in all the new shades and cheap enough for us all. They've a strong line of staple silks and you can find anything you want there. But you should inspect their line of new costumes. They're a brand new one called The Invisible Lingerie, that's all right, guaranteed to be of best workmanship, best material but best of all no eyelets that rust. Buy one. It's great. Anything you want, go there and you'll find it sure. Remember—M. R. Samuels.

Hopkins the evangelist, have been gratifying, meriting his retention for another year. The finances are in good condition. We misplaced our notes of this session, hence are brief. The people of Winchester entertained the guests at their homes. The hospitality was generous and elegant. The writer with usually about fifteen others, feasted with Mr. and Mrs. M. T. McElowney. MARRIAGES.

BAUMANN-RAMSEY.
At the Baumann Hotel in Mt. Sterling, Ky., on Monday, October 3, 1904, Mr. Harry Baumann, of Ind., was married to Miss Lillie Ramsey, of Jeffersonville, Ky. The ceremony was by B. W. Trimble in the presence of a few friends and relatives. The bride is a daughter of F. A. Ramsey and wife and is a popular young lady, who will be much missed. Until recently the groom has been a farmer, but is now employed in railroad work. They left on Tuesday for their home at Ladoga, where a furnished home is ready for them. We extend our wishes for success and happiness.

ANDERSON-WILSON.
On yesterday at the home of the bride's father, Mr. Edward Wilson, Clay City, Rev. Irvine officiating, Miss Anna Pearl Wilson was married to Mr. George W. Anderson, Jr., book-keeper for the Swan Day Lumber Co., from Clay City. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson drove to his parents home this county, G. W. Anderson and wife, for dinner and from there went to St. Louis and will be at home in Clay City in about ten days. After January 1st Mr. Anderson and wife will come to this county to reside. Mr. Anderson is one of our very best men, and we are sure of such a high appreciation of woman and her graces has made a wise selection in his choice of a wife. We extend congratulations.

TABB-YOUNG.
On Wednesday, Sept. 29, 1904, at 8 o'clock at the Christian church in this city, many kindred and friends witnessed the marriage of Mr. Herbert G. Tabb, of this city, and Miss Anna Laura Young, who lives near the city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. D. Clark. The church was beautifully decorated in white and green. As Mrs. J. E. Jeppson played the wedding march the procession entered the building. The bridesmaids were Miss Clara Bascom, of Bath; and Miss Louisa Tabb, of this city, entering in single file the left aisle. The groomsmen, Mr. W. S. Turner and Mr. W. B. White, entered by the right aisle. The bride attended by her maid of honor, Miss Sadie Young, her cousin, of Bourbon, entered on the left. The groom attended by his brother, Mr. H. T. Tabb, who stood at the altar. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Young and has by inheritance and cultivation those traits of character and personality which have endeared her to a large circle of friends. The groom is a popular young man, a traveling salesman for a wholesale shoe house in Louisville, and has many friends. They are now in Louisville and will be at the Louisville Hotel until Oct. 25, when they will go to housekeeping in this city in the groom's cottage on Clay Street. Our best wishes attend them.

RAYLESS-CHENAU.
The surprise marriage of Miss Elizabeth Rayless, of Lexington, to Mr. Anderson Chenault, of New York, formerly of this city, was near a midnight wedding. It was held at 11 o'clock in the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Chenault, of this county. Mr. Anderson Chenault has many warm friends here who extend congratulations to him and his most estimable and handsome wife. Mr. Chenault began business here as a telegraph operator and from here he went to New York where he was for a time confidential secretary of the Cotton King, Daniel J. Sullivan, and from this position he went with his uncle, S. F. B. Morse, the railroad magnate, as his private secretary which position he holds now. Mr. Chenault is a young man of great promise and a favorite with all who know him. She is a daughter of Mr. K. B. Bayless and sister of L. C. and W. K. Bayless, the wholesale fruit dealers of Lexington, Ky. We join with the host of friends in extending congratulations.

The meeting will continue until the following Tuesday. All departments of church and Sunday school work will receive careful attention from prominent preachers. The people of Willard extend a cordial invitation. A rich program will be prepared. State and National Workers will be present.

For a number of years some of the churches of England have held what were called "Pleasant Afternoon" services on the Sabbath Day, to which all the members of all families were invited. These have been largely attended and often the churches were crowded. Some of the Eastern churches of America introduced these services last winter and found them very successful. The First Presbyterian church, of Mt. Sterling, will hold such a service on Sunday afternoon, Oct. 9, at 4 o'clock. The subject, "The Home" will be considered, and there will be an interesting program. The pastor, Rev. Geo. A. Joplin, wishes to extend a cordial invitation to everybody. Do not be afraid to bring the small children. Come and help and receive help.

W. C. T. U. CONVENTION.

Our City Honored and Our Citizens Inspired to Higher Ideals.

The 24th Annual Convention of the Kentucky Woman's Christian Temperance Union met in this city, Mt. Sterling, Ky., on Friday evening, Sept. 30, 04, and closed its sessions on Tuesday evening. The convention was held in the Methodist Church. The decorations were in white, emblematic of purity. Potted plants, palms and ivy lent a charm to the back ground.

Local committees did well their part to add to comfort of our city's honorable guests and the success of the convention. The number of delegates was about seventy-five. The State officers were all present and are:

Mrs. Frances E. Beauchamp, Lexington, President.

Mrs. Mary W. Bender, Louisville, Vice-President.

Mrs. Mary E. Balch, Louisville, Corresponding Secretary.

Mrs. Nelly T. Anspiger, Lexington, Recording Secretary.

Mrs. Elizabeth K. Myall, Paris, Treasurer.

Mrs. Nelly T. Anspiger, Lexington, T. T. Secretary.

We will do good service to our readers by giving them

DECLARATION OF PRINCIPLES.
We believe in the coming of His kingdom whose service is perfect freedom, because His laws, written in our member as well as in nature and in grace, are perfect, converting the soul.

We believe in the gospel of the Golden Rule, and that each member's habits of life should be an example safe and beneficent for every other man to follow.

We believe that God created both man and woman in his own image, and therefore, we believe in one standard of purity for both men and women, and in the equal right of all to hold opinions and to express the same with equal freedom.

We believe in a living wage for every laborer; in courts of conciliation and arbitration; in justice as opposed to greed or gain; in peace on earth and good will to men.

We, therefore, formulate, and for ourselves adopt the following pledge, asking our sisters and brothers of a common danger and common hope, to make common cause with us in winning its reasonable and helpful precepts into the practice of every day life:

PLEDGE.
I hereby solemnly promise, God helping me, to abstain from all distilled, fermented and malt liquors, including wine, beer and cider, and to employ all proper means to keep the sacred and traffic in the same.

To confirm and enforce the rationale of this pledge, we declare our purpose to educate the young; to form a better public sentiment; to reform, so far as possible by religious, ethical and scientific means, the drinking custom; to seek the transforming power of divine grace for ourselves and in winning its reality, that they and we may willfully transcend no law of pure and wholesome living; and finally, we pledge ourselves to labor and pray that all these principles, founded upon the Gospel of Christ, may be worked out into the customs of society and the laws of the land.

We can not tell by many details of the convention as we would like, but trust that what is written will be interesting and helpful. Much of the business of the sessions has been passed by.

The convention was called to order by President Beauchamp. Four addresses of welcome were made. On behalf of the churches, Rev. J. R. Hobbs; on behalf of the schools Professor H. M. Gunn; on behalf of the city, Dr. W. T. Simrall; on behalf of the local union, Mrs. Jennie Thomson, its president. These were highly creditable.

The response was by Mrs. Nora B. Taylor, of Lexington. Mrs. Beauchamp, who has been State President for eight years, then delivered her address. She is fluent, efficient and enthusiastic. Saturday morning was given to appointment of committees and miscellaneous business. In afternoon the reports of secretary, treasurer, etc., were read.

There are in the State about 75 unions and 1063 members. The treasurer's report shows that during the year the receipts from various sources were $755.80, which, with balance on hand, $434.50, gives $1,190.30. The expenses were $708.73.

sight. These comes the thought: "You! There expect one of my age to stand in public on the stage and deliver a declamation." All acquitted themselves with credit.

Mrs. Agnes Ertor, of Ashland, delivered a German dialect declamation while the judges were out. There was no Sunday morning session, but Mrs. Beauchamp spoke at Methodist Church and at First Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Mary E. Balch, of Louisville, at 8 o'clock Mrs. Leonora M. Lake, of St. Louis, Third Vice-President of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union of America, delivered a great address. She is truly a great woman!—great in thought, great in eloquent expression, great in sympathy and love, great in her plea for individual and national purity, great in faith in God and Christ, and with it all so modest and tender, yet courageous. At the close of her address an offering for the general fund was taken, amounting to $339.

"Twas good and inspiring to be there.

There was no preaching at the churches in the evening. The speakers were Miss Katherine Pettit, of Lexington, and Miss Stone, of Louisville, who for three years have had in charge the W. C. T. U. Settlement School at Hindman, Ky. There are now enrolled over 200 pupils, there are six teachers, a trained nurse, and a housekeeper. Misses Pettit and Stone give their entire time to the work. There are over 40 boys in the manual training department. Its equipment is not surpassed by any in the State. The girls are taught housekeeping, sewing and cooking. Twelve girls live in the home with the teachers. Misses Pettit and Stone receive no compensation. They deserve much praise for their labor of love. They began this settlement work about eight years ago. An offering by the Union and individuals was taken, amounting to $597.

On Monday reports were given by organizers and County Presidents and Superintendents of various departments. At 6 o'clock Mrs. Charlton Edholm, of Oakland, Cal., exposed the heinous traffic in girls. Her recital of the doing of the association which carries on this infamy is enough to arouse righteous indignation. Her own experience is particularly touching.

The announcement that Mrs. Lake would speak in the evening packed the building to its utmost capacity. For 1 hr. and 20 minutes she held her audience in deep interest. She spoke of the child's right to be well born and well reared. In a simple way, yet with great power she told of the influence of heredity and environment and made an appeal to fathers and mothers. She again spoke of the Tuesday morning was given to reports of Superintendents, and election of officers, which resulted in the re-election of those now serving and whose names appear above. The National Convention meets in Philadelphia on November 30th.

The Kentucky delegates elected here are: Mrs. Jennie Thomson, Mt. Sterling; Mrs. Mary Bender and Mrs. L. C. Lagrass, of Louisville. In afternoon the committees reported and Mrs. Edholm addressed the convention.

As we go to press before evening session we can not report the address of our sister, J. Vorhager, President of Indiana W. C. T. U. She arrived on Monday night.

MISCELLANEOUS.
Some stores have attractive W. C. T. U. window displays.

The music has been fine. The evening sessions have been largely attended. We wish that every man and woman in the county could have heard Mrs. Lake and Mrs. Edholm. Hats were off—usually. Now for an advance agent, spoke of the evils. How can we fall to have new ideas about life? We thank the ladies for good we have received. We extend the best wishes of Mr. Sterling (Ky.) ADVOCATE.

We have just received a car load of sugar which we can name you a very low price on.
